TOKYO (AP) — Red China called Soviet leaders "freaks and monsters" today for approving the nuclear test ban treaty, while Moscow accused Chinese Premier Chou En-lai of acting in bad faith as long as four years ago.

Albania, allied with Peking, pitched into the war of words by accusing Premier Khrushchev of "unconditional concessions and capitulation to the imperialists" in agreeing to a partial nuclear test ban with the United States and Britain.

The Peking People's Daily, official organ of the Chinese Communist party, launched an attack against the Soviet Union and its Western partners in the test ban treaty.

"Reflects the ugly face of U.S. imperialism, which is aggressive by nature, as well as the servile

Many Getting Welfare Aid, Not Eligible

WASHINGTON (AP)—A report issued by the Health, Education and Welfare Department Thursday said 6.6 per cent of the 7,108 families receiving aid to dependent children in Arkansas are ineligible for the welfare grants.

The report was prepared at the request of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

It said that 1.6 per cent of the families had intentionally concealed or misrepresented facts when they applied for the aid.

The Arkansas ineligibility percentage was low in comparison with other Southern states. Only two—Louisiana with 3.2 per cent and Virginia with 4.5 per cent ineligibility—had better records.

The ineligibility percentage in Southern states ran as high as 16.4 per cent in Georgia.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nationwide review shows that 5.4 per cent of families receiving aid for dependent children were ineligible, but little fraud was found the Welfare Department reported today.

Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze said immediate steps are being taken to tighten controls, based on the findings. The ineligibility rate for individual states ranged from none to 17.3 per cent, but the department cautioned that differing judgments of individual evaluators make accurate comparisons difficult.

The report said there was little evidence of intentional concealment or misrepresentation of facts by ineligible recipient families but that there were wide variations in the correctness of payments among the states under the federal-state welfare program.

Celebrezze made his report to the Senate Appropriations Committee, which requested the study after disclosures of widespread ineligibilities in the District of Columbia.

The meeting will be at the state Highway Building.

Malvern and Paragould, losers Thursday night, play tonight and the winner could get back into the fight for the championship.

Pine Bluff Police beat defending champion Malvern 7-0 behind the pitching of Tommy Tullos Thursday night. Tullos struck out 15 and hit two singles.

Arkansas a Dismal Picture of Progress, Census Shows, State Behind Rest of Nation

COMMUNIST VERY ACTIVE — William Loeb, publisher of the Manchester, N.H., Union, testifying before the Senate Commerce Committee that is holding hearings on the proposed public accommodations act in the civil rights hearings bill, said that "The Communist play a very active role in the present racial unrest."

Loeb asserted the "cold facts" make Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's statement that "there is no evidence of Communist connections with the leaders of the Negro civil rights movement" unbelievable and entitled to no credibility whatsoever.

Two Counties to Get Flood Assistance

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Emergency Planning announced today it has declared Garland, Dallas and Columbia counties, Ark., disaster areas as a result of heavy rains and floods last month.

The announcement, through the office of Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., said the agency is allocating $150,000 to the area for repair of sewer and water facilities, roads and other public facilities.

The agency said it would confer with Gov. Orval E. Faubus as to the nature of assistance needed.

Faubus received word of the allocation today and said the money would be used on streets, roads and bridges.

Stu Prosser, state Civil Defense director who requested the funds, said the three county judges and the mayor of Hot Springs will meet in Little Rock Monday to document their damage claims.

Then the money will be divided among the three counties, Prosser said.

The meeting will be at the state Highway Building.

U.S. to Test Underground President Says

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's announcement the United States will continue underground weapons testing may aid his drive for Senate ratification of the limited nuclear treaty.

Kennedy told his news conference Thursday that subterranean tests will continue. They are excluded from the agreement reached with the Soviet Union and Britain prohibiting testing in the atmosphere, space and under water.

This may alleviate the fears of some senators that this country might voluntarily put a moratorium on such tests in an effort to get the complete ban toward which Kennedy said the United States will keep on striving.

It also served notice that American efforts to perfect more effective nuclear weapons will continue with the kind of experiments scientists generally estimate cover 80 per cent of the nuclear development field.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who has been dubious about the treaty, indicated that his decision would be influenced by what he finds out about the underground program. Jackson is chairman of the Senate-Atomic Energy subcommittee dealing with weapons.

"I would say that the assurances that can be given by the administration of a definite underground test program that would be considered adequate by our professional experts would help materially in reaching a decision on the treaty," he said.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said in a separate interview he believed underground tests will provide "virtually all the progress we need" in developing weapons.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who remains uncommitted on the treaty, said among the many things senators will want to learn from military leaders is "whether underground tests will meet our national security needs."

Kennedy said he doesn't see anything wrong in senators' adopting a wait and see attitude toward the treaty, as many Republicans and some Democrats have.

But he added: "Sooner or later, however, if you wait long enough and you see long enough you have to do something and you have to vote 'yes' or 'no.'"

"My judgment is when the testimony is all in that this treaty will be ratified. I think it would be a great mistake not to."

Mansfield said he hopes the treaty to be signed Monday in Moscow can be brought before the Senate before Labor Day. He said he thinks various committees ought to complete their hearings in a couple of weeks, and he expects a week's debate on the floor.

25 Arrested in Racial Disorders

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Twenty-five Negro demonstrators were arrested and held under $500 bonds Thursday night for refusing to leave the Pine Bluff public library when it closed.

The arrest of the Negroes, who were charged with refusing to leave public property and creating a disturbance in a public place, capped a day of stand-ins at the library and a drive-in restaurant.

Earlier, employees of McDonald Hamburgers shoved two Negro girls to the floor and pushed a Negro youth through a plate-glass window as they attempted to clear demonstrators away from serving windows to allow white persons to buy food. No injuries were reported.

Ten Negroes held a stand-in at the library during the day, but no incidents were reported.

William Hansen, field secretary for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), said the 25 demonstrators were arrested 40 minutes after they refused to leave the library when it closed.

Mrs. Earl Spencer, chief librarian, said the library had been desegregated 10 years, but that Negroes were issued cards only at a branch library in a Negro section of the city because of a lack of room at the main facility.

Hansen said the demonstrators were told at the main library that they could check out only non-fiction not available at the branch.

Between 30 and 40 white youths were at the drive-in during most of the demonstration there, but McDonald employees asked them to remain in their cars when they were not buying food.

Five police units and 18 policemen stood by at the drive-in and there were no incidents involving customers and demonstrators.

The demonstrations resumed last week after Negroes said negotiations between white and Negro leaders were not showing satisfactory progress. The original demonstrations began in February but ended in April following mass arrests and the start of negotiations.

Man Involved in Slaying Is Sane

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — James V. Murphy, 37, of El Dorado, has been returned to jail after being found without psychosis at the State Hospital in Little Rock.

Murphy is charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of Jimmy F. Hays, 46, of El Dorado last July 4.

SILVER PAYDAY — Winthrop Rockefeller, center, owner of Winrock Farms in Morrilton, Ark., pays his employees in silver dollars in celebration of the 10th anniversary of the farm. Rockefeller is a brother to the New York Governor.

Says Rights Bill Like Dictatorship

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus told a North Little Rock civic club Thursday that the United States would be like a dictatorship if President Kennedy's proposed civil rights legislation were passed and enforced.

The governor said Kennedy's proposal to outlaw segregation in businesses engaged in interstate commerce would force people to associate with others against their will "no matter how bad they might be."

Faubus added that he expected the government soon to "break up our homes" as in Red China or Russia.

11 Counties Lagging in Assessments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eleven counties have dropped below an 18 per cent property assessment ratio and face withholding of some state turnback money if the situation is not corrected by Nov. 18.

Jack Cato, director of the Assessment Co-ordination Division of the Public Service Commission, listed the counties as Boone, Franklin, Greene, Howard, Independence, Madison, Newton, Searcy, Sharp, Van Buren and Woodruff.

A 1959 law provides for withholding a portion of the state turnback money due any county, city or school district in which property is not assessed at a minimum of 18 per cent of actual value.

Only one county — Drew — has ever had the withholding provision invoked.

Cato said the counties on the under-assessed list had not lowered any assessments but that some new construction and newly developed land had not shown up on the assessment books although it is being counted in computing the total property value.

Greens Ferry Park

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Army Engineers gave the State of Arkansas permission Thursday to operate a state park on 118 acres of land bordering Greens Ferry Reservoir. The land is at the western end of the reservoir, four miles from U.S. Highway 66 and the relocated town of Choctaw.

State College Work to Begin Soon

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—B. B. Vance and Sons of Jonesboro submitted an apparent low bid of $319,977 Thursday on a contract for construction of a levee to keep the McLean Bottom in Logan County from being flooded by the Dardanelle Reservoir. Army Engineers estimated cost of the 20-foot high, 18,200-foot long levee at $284,916.

Ward Failing to Respond to Treatment

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Stephen Ward failed to respond to treatment for an overdose of drugs and bronchial pneumonia and drifted closer to death today.

A spokesman for St. Stephen's Hospital said Ward's physician "has expressed increasing concern for his patient."

The society osteopath has been in a coma since he took an overdose of drugs Wednesday shortly before he was convicted of living off the earnings of prostitutes.

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP)—Stephen Ward lay unconscious at the edge of death today and his latest girl friend promised to avenge him if he dies.

Julie Gulliver, 23, a red-haired singer who was Ward's daily companion during his trial, told newsmen:

"There's a whole crowd of people right now praying for Stephen to die so that their names won't be mentioned."

"If he dies I'm going to make sure that they are."

Ward, 50, society osteopath and artist, has been in a coma since Wednesday when he took a massive overdose of drugs a few hours before an Old Bailey jury found him guilty of living off the prostitution of Christine Keeler, 21, and Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies, 18.

Ward developed bronchial pneumonia Thursday afternoon. At one point his breathing stopped and he was clinically dead. A breathing machine, applied to an incision in his throat, pumped air into his lungs. A spokesman for St. Stephen's Hospital said Ward's heart probably stopped also.

William Mayne Butcher, secretary of the hospital management committee, said: "Ward is desperately ill—just about half alive. I don't know how long anyone can live under these conditions."

Ward was still unaware that he had been found guilty and faced up to 14 years in prison.

His private room was bright with flowers sent in by many of his girl friends.

Only Miss Gulliver had applied to see him. She was turned away in tears as an official said, "Only relatives—no girls."

Ward told friends he believed he was being made the scapegoat for the Profumo scandal, which set off charges of immorality in high political and social circles and nearly forced Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to resign.

Ward had introduced Christine Keeler to War Minister John D. Profumo, who resigned June 4 after admitting he lied to the House of Commons in an attempt to cover up his affair with the call girl.

Macmillan, 69, told a television interviewer Thursday night the Profumo scandal had wounded and bruised him.

"This is something which has never occurred in my life before—a world unrevealed and quite foreign to me, and very unpleasant," said the prime minister.

Macmillan added, however, he has no idea of quitting the leadership of the Conservative party, and "will do whatever I think is most likely for the party to win the next election."

Bulletin

NEW YORK (AP)—James M. Landis, former dean of Harvard Law School and special adviser to President Kennedy, pleaded guilty today in federal court to late filing and payment of income taxes for five years.

He explained that the pressure of involvement in public affairs had compounded a situation brought about by the sale of inherited securities "to meet a pressing family need."

The U.S. attorney for Manhattan said the charges were filed because Landis "did not meet government standards of voluntary disclosure." The returns were "all filed recently," the prosecutor added.

The case involves income totaling more than $310,000.

Bids Taken on Levee Work

Army Engineers estimated cost of the 20-foot high, 18,200-foot long levee at $284,916.

Blistering Row in Hearing on Public Accommodations

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blistering political row among Senate Commerce Committee members capped today their hearings on President Kennedy's bill to ban racial discrimination in places of public accommodation.

The uproar was touched off by questions by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., put to Minnesota's Democratic Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag who had testified for the bill.

Scott asked Rolvaag if he had voted at the recent Governors Conference in Miami to abolish the resolutions committee but not for the purpose Scott staged. He said there was a full, free, open discussion of civil rights at the conference, with "no gagging" of anyone.

Scott said one Republican governor—meaning Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York — had sought to have action taken on civil rights. He asked if Rolvaag had not joined in voting to table the motion.

Rolvaag replied that the executive committee had voted to continue on Page Three HAIR APPARENT—Richard Andrew Ortiz, 3 months, gives up on a book of hairdos and use of that big comb. Tired of all those cracks about "what a cute little girl" he is, he's ready—and willing—to make that first trip to the barber-shop in Salinas, Calif.

In the Civil War, the federal government regarded the Confederates as rebels though they had been recognized as belligerents by neutral states. By law rebels are subject to prosecution for treason. After the war, a general amnesty terminated prosecution against the southern leaders.

Mysteries Important to Religion

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

Associated Press Religion Writer

The keyless door... the unutterable word... the shadow, and the mystery
Now and then, individual pleas are raised in religious circles these days for a recapturing of the sense of the strangeness and underlying enigmas of life
In a pragmatic world, which emphasizes logic and scientific methods, it is maintained that man is letting his mind and intellectual precision cut him off from the more mystifying notes of existence.

The claim is that strict, normal reasoning may sometimes blind the world to abnormal, unreasonable truths. It is even asked: "What is the 'message of madness'?"

A group of European theologians and psychiatrists for several years have been holding seminars and conferences on this question. A participant, the Rev. Dr. Aarne Siirala, of the University of Helsinki, says:
"Traditionally, we in the Western world have refused to listen to any messages which the mentally ill have addressed to us... their 'nonsense' talks."
"Gradually, however, an idea, even a certain conviction has been spreading to the effect that the chaos which we encounter in the mentally ill has a human message for us."

Only by paying heed to that irrational message, he maintains, can society discover what is wrong with it and learn to make amends.

In an address at Columbia University some time ago, Dr. Norman O. Brown, professor of classics at Wesleyan University, maintained that the modern world needs "to find again the mysteries."

The so-called scientific method, he said, has substituted "method for insight, mediocrity for genius" by setting "standard operating procedure."

What our times need, he said, is "to be renewed by the discovery of new mysteries," by imagination and by "the undemocratic power which makes poets the unacknowledged legislators of mankind, the power which makes all things new."

utive committee was directed by a 38-3 vote to study civil rights matters thoroughly and to report back later.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., protested that Scott's questioning was "absolutely unfair and uncalled for."

He said the questions carried a strong implication that Rolvaag had come before the committee to testify for civil rights after having tried to put a gag on the issue at the Governors Conference.

Pastore went on to say that the committee's request to Republican Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania for comment on the public accommodations bill had met with a noncommittal reply.

Pastore also said that the staff was advised that Gov. Rockefeller would "communicate orally" with respect to his views on the bill. Pastore said nothing had been heard since then.

Pastore said he was glad that Rolvaag had "had the guts, courage and fortitude to come before this committee and testify for the bill."

In closing the hearings, Pastore, as acting chairman, said the record would be kept open until next Tuesday to receive statements anyone wished to file.

Before the political rumpus, Rolvaag had urged that Congress act against what he termed the genuine and immediate challenge of racial injustice by passing a public accommodations law.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Karl F. Rolvaag, Minnesota's Democratic governor, urged Congress today to act against what he termed the genuine and immediate challenge of racial injustice by passing a public accommodations law.

He told the Senate Commerce Committee that a federal law banning discrimination by retail stores, hotels, restaurants and other private establishments catering to the public would complement and strengthen similar state statutes.

Rolvaag also said that "such a law would serve to emphasize and dramatize on a national level the public policy which prohibits discrimination not only in public accommodations but in every aspect of life."

The governor was one of the last witnesses called by the committee as it neared the end of five weeks of hearings on the bill.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., acting chairman of the committee, congratulated Rolvaag on "an excellent statement" and said, "It's like a breath of fresh air."

Most of the committee's recent witnesses, including five Southern governors, have sharply attacked the legislation as an unconstitutional assault on private property rights and the rights of the states.

Teachers Bonds Are Re-sold

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Teacher Retirement System sold $3,445,200 worth of local school district bonds Thursday and will invest the proceeds in corporate bonds and insured mortgages which yield from 4.4 to 5 per cent annual interest.

Executive Secretary Hoyt R. Pyle said the bonds had a current book value of $3,355,696 and had sold on a bid price of $3,409,237, producing a net gain of $53,561.

The bonds sold had an average annual yield of 3.78 per cent. All of the proceeds are to be put in the teacher retirement fund account.

Those Twins Are So Much Alike

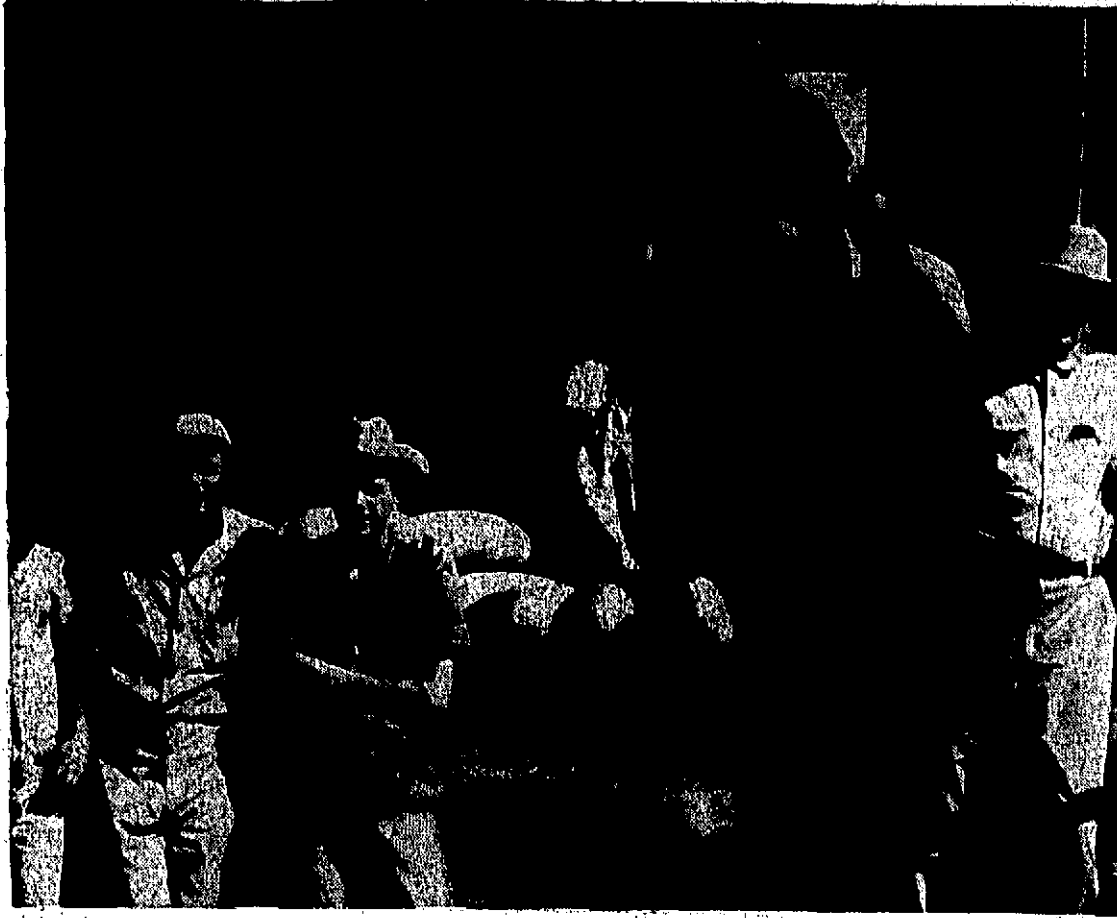

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For six weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fries have been arguing over their 6-month-old twin sons they couldn't agree which was which.

To settle the dispute, the Fries took the twins back to the hospital where they were born.

"The mother is right," one physician said. He based his judgment on the fact that hospital records show Samuel has been consistently heavier than Daniel.

There was another difference, too, the doctors said that should prevent further mixups. Daniel got a vaccination on his right arm and Samuel the vaccination on the left arm. Or was it Samuel that got it on the right arm?

THE LAW OF SUGGESTION CAN WORK IN REVERSE!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Fear Helen: My husband has accused me of the worst so often that I actually find myself doing things I shouldn't. Sounds strange, but it's true.

We're both of a jealous nature and had our spats from the moment we married three and a half years ago but nothing serious till now when the big black shadow over our married lives has become a reality. The affair in which I'm presently involved started with a fellow where I work, sweet-talking me.

After listening to the ranting at home, it was a relief to be spoken to in a friendly way. Yes, I was weak. I've been on my knees praying to God for forgiveness. Finally, on our little girl's birthday, I poured out the whole sordid story to my husband.

He cried and cried and looked as if every bit of life had been drained from him then said he was proud of me for having the courage to admit my wrong but wanted time to think things over.

He took baby and me to my mother's for a month's stay. Next night he was at the door; couldn't live without us. We went back home but it's not been the same. He started drinking, staying out nights and dating other girls. Finally, he told me about this other girl just as I had told him about the other man.

We forgave one another and decided to have a second child—the one I am now carrying. I was a real wife, he a real husband. Then we moved to a state where he planned starting up in business for himself and he's stepping out again! When I ask him if he loves me he says, "I can't say."

Do you think there is a chance for us? —Heartbroken

Dear Heartbroken: It takes strong character, great tenderness, deep forgiveness, and tremendous faith to salvage the wreckage of such a complicated instrument as marriage. It runs on mutual trust; it improves with increasingly mutual respect and it grows, in a way that no machine can, in a climate of unselfishness and sacrifice.

If you were keeping score of the game you and your husband have been playing you would note that he is at least one up on you. For reasons that make no sense, a wife's infidelity is viewed more critically in our society than a husband's.

The usual cause for the male is that monogamy is not his natural state, but this generally turns out to be nothing more than a shallow alibi for emotional immaturity — apersisting adolescent compulsion to conquer every female who crosses the path of his roving eye. In several states of the country, adultery is prosecuted against the woman and winked at for the man. No fair!

Your husband's refusal to redeclare his love probably is compounded of two reasons: He still resents your infidelity, having excused his own, and he wants to keep his conscience clear in his continuous philandering.

Ask your husband to pray with you for guidance and a new birth of genuine love—the love that wants to give more than it takes. You have one superb reason for preserving your marriage, and another forthcoming. If your husband can't grasp the fundamental significance of fatherhood, and thinks husbandry is a carnival game with a Kewpie doll prize features of those who are warmly embracing U.S. imperialism." "The exposure of these freaks and monsters in their true colors is an excellent thing for the revolutionary struggle of the peoples and the cause of world peace," the editorial continued.

The People's Daily accused the three treaty partners of acting as "nuclear overlords, while the overwhelming majority of (other) countries are to kneel down on the ground and obey orders meekly, as if they were nuclear slaves."

Khrushchev was named directly in another blast. Liao Cheng-chih, vice chairman of the China Peace Committee, told a rally in Peking: "In the past few years Khrushchev had all along been anxious to make a deal with U.S. imperialism in order to push the Soviet general line of peaceful co-existence."

Liao added that the Soviet sign- for every successful gamble, seriously consider building a new life without him. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my letter, "Phtuadnering."

Dear Helen: I read your column about how boys and girls should work their way through college. I have a grandson and granddaughter who would like to go to college when they graduate from high. What is the best procedure for them to follow? —Loving Grandma.

Dear Loving Grandma: There are many self-help jobs available and the best place to find out about them is in college itself. Your grandchildren might be eligible for scholarships. Their high school guidance counselor could advise them on that.

Dear Helen: My husband and I are married three years, the second time for both of us. I had been employed until recently so naturally we need two cars. Now that I'm not working he feels it an extravagance to maintain more than one and says when I must go anywhere he can drop me off on his way to work. He wants to sell his work car and keep my new one. His is always piled with tools and junk inside and on top.

I baby-sit and still earn enough to pay all the expenses on the new car. He calls this an inconsiderate and selfish attitude and hasn't spoken to me for some time. We both read your column and would appreciate having your viewpoint. —Fair Is Fair

Dear Fair: This being the age of the wheel when mobility is almost a necessity, I would say that if it's not a financial hardship, you should keep both cars. The little you realize on his "work car" is a small price to pay for your convenience. Let him use his older car four work and when you go out together, take your new car. So long as you earn enough to pay expenses, your second car is not an extravagance.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ing of the test ban treaty was "capitulation to imperialism and a gross sellout of the interests of the socialist (Communist) countries."

Moscow's direct attack on Chou came in a review of the tradition of discipline among Communist parties.

History Prof. B. Leibzon, writing in the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, noted that Chou at the 1950 Soviet party Congress in Moscow endorsed Kremlin leadership of the world Communist movement but soon afterward launched a campaign against the Soviet party.

This showed Chou was "insincere and had a long-range objective," Leibzon asserted.

Denies Motion for New Trial
LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Pulaski Circuit Judge William J. Kirby denied a new trial motion today and sentenced Russell Freeman Kumpke, 37, to 21 years in prison on an assault with intent to kill conviction.

Kumpke was convicted July 15 in the beating of Calvin Mattison at a Little Rock private club, the first in a series of events which led to fatal shooting of a North Little Rock policeman April 16.

James Dean Walker, 22, who is charged with first degree murder in the shooting, also is charged in the beating of Mattison. Walker testified at Kumpke's trial that he (Walker) actually beat Mattison.

Negro Named to Davis Cup Team
SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) - Arthur Ashe, the first Negro ever selected for the U.S. Davis Cup team, today conceded with a big grin that "there's more pressure on me now" to win the Eastern Grass Court Championships.

"They'll all be shooting for me," Ashe said, referring to the others players, "so I guess I'll have to shoot back."

Ashe, 20, a junior at the University of California at Los Angeles, was named Thursday to the four-man team that will oppose Mexico in the American zone semi-final Davis Cup match Aug. 16-18 at Los Angeles.

Although ranked No. 18 among U.S. men players, Ashe's record this year prompted his selection, according to W. Harcourt Woods, of Short Hills, N.J.

Ashe won the Southern California Intercollegiate title earlier this year and last week he went to the semifinals of the Pennsylvania Grass Court championships before losing to U.S. Davis Cup ace Chuck McKinley, the Wimbledon champ.

Robert Kelleher, the U.S. Davis Cup captain who lives in Los Angeles, will assemble his team next week. The others named, in addition to Ashe and McKinley, were Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Martin Riessen, Hinsdale, Ill.

Rusk Leaves Today for Pact Signing
By ENDRE MARTON
WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of State Dean Rusk leaves for Moscow tonight to sign the limited nuclear test ban treaty and to explore the chances of further East-West understanding.

The signing of the treaty, in which the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain pledge to abstain from testing in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water, will be a ceremonial affair Monday.

The pact was initiated last Thursday by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman. Britain's Science Minister, Lord Hailsham and Andrei A. Gromyko, the Soviet foreign minister.

Rusk will be accompanied to Moscow by high administration officials and six senators—four Democrats and two Republicans.

He has been invited to remain in the Soviet Union after the signing ceremony, and the Moscow conferences are expected to last three or four days.

To what extent and for how long Lord Home, the British foreign secretary, will participate in these talks was not immediately clear. He, Rusk and Gromyko will sign the treaty in the Kremlin's magnificent St. Catherine Hall.

Khrushchev, officials said, is expected to start the talks with Rusk on Tuesday. The place is undetermined, although Khrushchev is known to have planned a vacation at the Black Sea. Later, the discussions likely will be held in Moscow with Gromyko. The four Democratic senators

Americans Sweep Relays in Germany
By JIM BECKER
HANNOVER, Germany (AP) - The American track and field squad, off to a disappointing start in Moscow two weeks ago, is honed to a fine edge now after meets with Poland and Germany.

It showed that in the two-day dual battle with a young West German team which ended here Thursday night, winning by 141 to 82, about as lopsided as these international meets can get.

Over the two days, the Americans won 18 of the 21 events, and 10 of 11 on the final day. They scored one-two sweeps in two events, and won both relays.

Four of their performances Thursday were better than the winning marks in the Moscow meet which the Americans won by only 119 to 114, the narrowest margin in the five meetings.

The next anticipated victim is the British team, in London Saturday and Monday. The team flies to London today.

That meet will wind up the tour.

Thursday, Rex Cawley's 50.1 seconds in the 400-meter hurdles, Bob Hayes' 20.6 in the 200 meters, Frank Covelli's javelin throw of 264 feet, 9 1/2 inches and the Americans' 1,600-meter relay team's 3:02.8 all were better than the Moscow marks.

For the second straight day, the Americans got an incredible anchor leg on the relay. Thursday it was Henry Carr's 44.3, the fastest 400-meter relay leg ever run.

The other American victories Thursday were in the high jump, Paul Stubber, 6 feet, 7 inches; steeple chase, Pat Traynor, 8:44.4; shot put, Dave Davis, 58 feet, 8 1/2 inches; triple jump, Ralph Boston, 52 feet, 2 1/2 inches; 1,500 meters, Morgan Groth, 3:42.2 and 10,000-meter walk, Ronald Zinn, 46:50.8.

Madame Lonna
Madame Lonna swung into her pitch about how handwriting reveals character.

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE
By M. E. SCHMIDT
Dear Plink:
Thanks for the card Glad your combo is clicking. My summer job is okay, too. Nothing new here except—well, you know how every once in a while fortune-telling or tea leaf-reading comes back in style? Well, now we're having a run on handwriting analysis. And let me tell you, man, leave it alone—it's murder!

It almost cost me my girl Betts and some of my favorite front teeth. So believe me—it's poison! Talk about scraps of paper turning world history! Man!

You see, Betts' kid brother popped in the house one miserable morning with a note from Betts. Would I please get some of her special face goo in the city? She needed it for a dance that night. Naturally I told Junior I'd deliver it.

So that's how I had Betts' note in my jacket when I went out for lunch with Don and Dave. They headed for this new restaurant that had advertised "Madame Lonna - Handwriting Analyst." And right away they started scrounging for handwriting samples. You know what looks they are!

When they didn't find anything in their pockets, they picked mine. Don said, "Ho-ho, what have we here?" (I suppose a writer would say Don "chortled with glee.") Anyway when he read that list of cosmetics and realized it was from Betts and he beckoned to Madame Lonna. I tried to grab his arm but instead my teeth met his elbow as he waved to her.

With all that ruckus putting us in the limelight, the Madame zeroed in like a hound after a treed raccoon—only I was the raccoon role on the limb.

While I was counting my teeth,

The Amazing Hayes Makes a Great Run

HANOVER, Germany (AP)—

"It must be the greatest 100 meters ever run," said United States track coach Payton Jordan, an old sprinter himself, of the incredible relay anchor leg blasted out by Robert Hayes on the opening day of the United States-West Germany meet.

Hayes, the burly Florida A&M sprinter, took the baton five yards back of German anchor man Alfred Hebauff, and blazed past the German and won the 400-meter relay by a yard Wednesday.

The American team was timed in 39.7 seconds.

It was the highlight of the opener of the two-day meet, in which the Americans ran up a 64-42 margin and won eight of the 10 events.

The remaining 11 will be run today.

Henry Carr's brilliant 45.4 seconds victory in the 400 meters was overshadowed by Hayes' great relay leg.

The Americans rapped up one-two sweeps in 10-meter high hurdles, with Hayes Jones of Detroit the winner in 13.6 seconds; 800 meters with Tom O'Hara of Chicago in front in 1:49.3; the broad jump with Ralph Boston of Los Angeles leaping 25-11; the pole vault, where John Pennel of Miami went to 16-4 1/2 and the discus, won by Bob Humphries of Long Beach, Calif., at 186-3/4.

Only the 5,000 meters and the hammer throw were won by the Germans.

and Rochester lost to Atlanta 6-4 and dropped into a first place tie with idle Syracuse in the Northern Division. A Columbus-Richmond doubleheader and a Syracuse-Jacksonville game were rained out.

Maple Leaf Pitcher Jim Bronstad, working in humidity approaching 99 per cent, allowed only four Traveler hits while striking out seven and walking none.

Jay Loses No. 15, So Do the Redlegs

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with Joey Jay, Cincinnati's two-time 20-game winner who last year couldn't buy himself, and this year can't find himself?

That's the problem plaguing Reds' officials, who were astounded last year when Jay made an unprecedented move to buy his own contract, and are confounded this year by Jay's inability to produce for Cincinnati's National League pennant hopefuls.

The right-hander, 27, absorbed another setback Thursday, logging loss No. 15 to go with only four victories as the fifth-place Reds dropped a 3-2 decision to St. Louis and fell 8 1/2 games behind first-place Los Angeles.

The victory moved the Cardinals into a tie for second place with San Francisco, 4 1/2 games back of the Dodgers.

Only one other NL game was scheduled. The fourth-place Chicago Cubs clobbered Milwaukee 10-2 as Ellis Burton became the fifth player in NL history to hit home runs batting right and left.

Curt Simmons, 10-5, was the winner, but needed ninth-inning relief help from Ron Taylor and Bobby Shantz.

The switch-hitting Burton connected against Braves' left-hander Denny Lemaster, 7-6, in the first inning and right-hander Roy Piche in the seventh. The feat has been accomplished 16 times in the majors—with Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees doing it nine times.

Steve Boros and Jim Schaffer also homered for Chicago while Larry Jackson, 12-9, scattered seven hits in going all the way handed in the same game. The only American League game scheduled—Boston at Baltimore—was rained out.

Jay became a 20-game winner for the first time in 1961, posting a 21-10 record as the Reds stunned the baseball world by grabbing the NL pennant. Jay turned around and stunned the baseball world by himself in spring training the next season.

Locked in a salary dispute with Reds' General Manager Bill DeWitt, Jay admitted, "I have asked him to sell me my contract. I am willing to pay him my next five years' salary based on what he's offering so that I can become a free agent."

The offer, amounting to about $125,000, was turned down. So was Jay's subsequent bid as he raised the ante to $200,000. He finally settled the salary squabble, went to work and compiled a 21-14 record.

Jay wasn't tagged hard by the Cardinals, but George Altman connected for a fifth-inning home run that snapped a 1-1 tie and St. Louis pushed across the clincher in the eighth after Jay left on a walk, a pinch single by Charlie James and Tim McCarver's sacrifice fly.

5 grades prices

...A new way to buy gasoline and save up to 3¢ a gallon

5 grades...5 prices...blended in the gas pump

...blended exactly to fit your car

Half of all U. S. car owners buy the wrong grade of gasoline.

Many waste money buying premium octane power their cars can't use. Others risk engine damage by using a regular grade which causes knock and loss of power.

Why is this true? Until now, car owners had to choose between only two or three grades of gasoline—which cannot meet the wide variety of octane requirements of cars on the road today.

But now you can buy Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline in any one of five different octane ratings... at five different prices... one of them exactly right for your car.

Each blend is top-quality Lion gasoline with the exclusive Lionite® additive that prevents pre-ignition knock or ping... keeps spark plugs clean... improves engine breathing by keeping the carburetor clean.

How Lion Octane-Blending works: The special pump draws two separate fuels from two underground tanks, feeding them through a hose-within-a-hose in the exact proportion for your car.

The lower the octane rating your car needs, the more you save... 1¢, 2¢ even 3¢ a gallon! And Lion is the only place you can get it.

Stop in at your Lion Dealer's. He'll help you select the correct blend for your car. Change to Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline, and keep the change!
